GAME NOTES

<< POSTSEASON HISTORY >>

California Baptist University has enjoyed a run of success in the Alaska Airlines Center, as the Lancers won the 2015 West Regional last time they were here as the fifth-seeded team and unranked in Division II. It was just part of a Cinderella run to the D-II Championship game that year. Last season, CBU lost a heartbreaker to Alaska Anchorage in overtime of the West Region semifinals at Azusa Pacific, 83-79. Overall, CBU has a 28-36 postseason record, including a 11-5 record in the NCAA in 2014.

<< ON A RUN >>

CBU set a program winning-streak record at 22 games with its 85-68 win at Dixie State on Feb. 11th, and comes into tonight riding 28-straight wins. The Lancers have also stretched their program-record win streak in the Van Dyne Gym to 33-straight games. CBU went 14-0 at home last season and were 13-0 in their friendly confines this season. The Lancers came into their regular-season finale with 12-straight victories by at least double-digit points, but were tested on their Senior Night against Point Loma. CBU pulled out the 94-85 overtime win for a huge boost of momentum.

<< HEAD-TO-HEAD >>

Point Loma may lead this overall series 46-40, but CBU has won eight-straight games against the Sea Lions. The Lancers have controlled the matchup under Coach Jarrod Olson, going 11-2 against the PLNU since the 2012-13 season. These two teams have met in the recent postseason several times. CBU defeated the Sea Lions in the first round of the 2015 PacWest Tournament 73-71 and then ended PLNU's season in the West Regional that year, 73-46, en route to the D-II Championship game. Four Lancers are averaging double figures against the Sea Lions this season. Kamille Diaz leads the way, with 22.7, followed by Tori Mithcell (13.7), Courtney Nelson (12.7) and Cassidy Mihalko (12.3).

<< HIGHEST DEBUT >>

CBU picked up its highest debut ranking, opening the season as the No. 2 team. The Lancers moved up to No. 3 in the most recent WBCA's NCAA Division II poll and at No. 6 in the D2SIDA poll.

<< SEPARATING ITSELF >>

Coming into the PacWest Tournament, CBU has proven to be elite in several categories this season. The Lancers shoot .471 percent from the floor at a team, .377 from three and .778 from the free-throw line, while holding their opposition to .389, .320 and .652, respectively. CBU enjoys a six-plus assist edge over its opponents a game (18.6-12.1), as well as a nearly five-rebound edge a game over its opponents (43.3-38.5).

<< A LOOK AT THE NUMBERS >>

Three freshly-minted, all-conference guards lead CBU statistically. The 2016-17 PacWest Player of the Year Cassidy Mihalko leads the Lancers in points (19.9) and rebounds (7.9) per game, while the first-teamer Diaz follows with 14.4 points and a team-high 6.2 assists a night. Courtney Nelson gives CBU arguably the most intimidating trio of guards in Division II, with 13.7 points, 4.3 rebounds and 2.6 assists an outing.

Balance is really what separates the Lancers from their competition, though. Center Tori Mitchell averages 9.1 points and 6.3 rebounds in 17.9 minutes a game, while true freshman forward Lexy Ram and sophomore guard Emma Meriggioli put up 9.0 and 8.1 points, respectively a contest. Erin Asher is another instant-offense senior guard for the Lancers, with averages 7.4 points and 3.1 assists, while senior forward Olivia Weber contributes 5.0 points and 6.1 rebounds in 17.1 minutes a game.

<< CHASING HISTORY >>

Cassidy Mihalko became the third Lancer in program history (and first since 2009) to join the 2,000-point club when she scored 25 points on Jan. 30th's 81-55 victory over Hawai'i-Hilo. The senior guard now ranks second in CBU scoring history, with 2,133 points, and third in rebounds with 751. Sonja Akkerman -- a 1991 graduate -- holds CBU's career scoring record at 2,373.

Kamille Diaz has also moved up in the all-time record book. She currently has 1,834 career points to rank third in the all-time record book. Diaz also ranks second all-time in the record book with 644 career assists. She needs 37 more assists to take the top spot and be the all-time assists record holder.
